

SPSP Social Psychology and Law Pre-Conference

The SPSP Social Psychology and Law pre-conference, hosted by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, will take place in Austin, TX on February 13th, 2014.

Pre-conference will include:

- Three symposia on discrimination, emotion and legal decision making, and new directions in social psychology and law.
  - Featured Speakers: Eve Brank, Sarah Gervais, Phillip Atiba Goff, Edie Greene, Victor Quintanilla, Jessica Salerno, Maggie Stevenson, and Richard Wiener
- Poster sessions featuring the latest research at the intersection of Social Psychology and the Law.
- 10-minute datablitz presentations from promising scholars in the field.
- Breakfast and lunch included with pre-conference registration.

Pre-conference registration is currently open.

Poster submissions and datablitz presentations are accepted on a rolling basis until January 1st, 2014.

Sponsored by the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and Springer Publishing.

For more information visit:

<https://sites.google.com/site/socialpsychologyandlaw/>