

TENURE-TRACK POSITION IN SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGY

The Department of Psychology at Simon Fraser University invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position at the rank of Assistant Professor in Social Psychology. We seek candidates with clearly demonstrated potential to establish a strong research program, excel in undergraduate and graduate training and teaching, and vigorously participate in departmental activities and service. The area of research specialization within social psychology is open, and we seek applications from scholars whose research is strongly complementary to that of our current social psychology faculty, while providing additional breadth and innovation.

Simon Fraser University is consistently ranked among the top comprehensive universities in Canada. More information about the Psychology Department and the University can be found on our website at <http://www.psyc.sfu.ca>. The campus is located on Burnaby Mountain in Greater Vancouver. Vancouver is a scenic waterfront city located minutes from the mountains and a wide range of outdoor activities. It has a reputation as a clean, safe, multicultural and ethnically diverse city, and is one of the very top cities in the world in which to live and work.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Simon Fraser University is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from all qualified persons, including visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities. The position is subject to availability of funding and final approval by the SFU Board of Governors. Application materials should be submitted electronically, via email to psycsoc@sfu.ca. Please provide a cover letter, curriculum vitae, research and teaching statements, copies of representative publications, and arrange for three referees to submit letters of reference.

Applications will be reviewed as they are received prior to the deadline of December 30; however, later applications will be reviewed until the position is filled.
